

I urge you to please keep the present ownership rules in place concerning the ownership of media outlets, in order to best serve the public rather than the special interests.